

Dissertation for Doctor of Irreligiosophy

By Mick's Coffee Mug

Hello, my name is Mick's coffee mug. Mick actually wrote this, since I can't write, but the degree is to be in my name.

Okay. I suppose you want me to talk about religion. I don't know anything about that - you know...coffee mug and all that. But you know what? Coffee is hot. No shit...I mean, that stuff can get REALLY hot. One time, I got third degree burns from the stuff. Really! Actually, that last part was a bit of a fib. But you know what? Sometimes I can see the air conditioner from here. Swear to God!

Okay, that's all from me. So fork over the degree, or I'll burn your ass with hot Folger's Classic Roast. Hahaha! I wouldn't really do that to nice folks like you, that's just a joke I like to use. But seriously, scarf it up.
