

Submitted to meet the requirements of the Doctor of Irreligiosophy 2010

Hello, my name is Emma. I am a Libran. I was born in a hospital. I like cats. I would like to write my dissertation on “The Articulatory Prowess of Leighton Allred, and The Silence of Dr. Charles Morrison on the Topic of The Separation of Church and State”. However, as I could find no reference to these subjects in a comprehensive literature search¹, I can’t. So, I wrote it on a proposal to have “Irreligiosophy 101” included in the curriculum at the Brigham Utah Lutheran Latter Slapatree Holy Institute of Theology College instead.

Each chapter of my theesus describes an outline and justification for each class in the syllabus. I hope you like it!
