PHD.Irr dissertation.

Hi, my name is Pancho. I write a PHD.Irr dissertation. I like to eat and clean my dick using my tongue. I eat and then eat more. The bipeds I own don't feed me enough. I'll kill them and then eat them. But I digress. I am a 7 years old Chihuahua and I am the leader of all and everything. My idiot owner wants a PHD.Irr for me which I don't give two shits about, it can't be eaten. It supposes to be about religion or a moron idiot called Hovind which I also do not care about nor understand. This is it:

Chapter 1: Eat

Chapter 2: Apparently, a biped called God or Jesus did it all. I shall kill him and eat him.

Chapter 3: Sleep. Wait, a Squirrel...never mind...

I think that those dinosaurs look like big birds which the cat I own likes to hunt and eat. The he leaves carcasses and I eat, yummy. Finger licking good. Wait, a squirrel. Anyways, I used to mount my big brother's head and then they cut my balls. Anyways, as I was saying I am hungry. I go now.

PS: My owner's computer has spell checker which I also don't give a fuck about

PS 2: Fuck Chuck and his soulmate Leighthon.

Amen.
